GROUND FOR EXCLUSION

A: Grounds relating to criminal convictions

The bidder has not been convicted by a final criminal judgment, either in Italy or in the country where the public auction is held, for any of the following offenses: (1) participation in a criminal organization; (2) corruption; (3) fraud; (4) terrorist offenses or offenses related to terrorist activities; (5) money laundering or financing of terrorism; (6) child labor and other forms of human trafficking; (7) any other offense resulting in the inability to contract with the public administration.

This ground for exclusion also applies where the person convicted by final judgment is a member of the bidder's administrative or supervisory body or holds powers of representation, decision-making, or control over the bidder (in the case of a legal entity)

B: relating to the pa

The bidder has not committed serious violations, definitively established by judicial or administrative decision, with respect to obligations relating to the payment of taxes, duties, or social security contributions.

C: Grounds relating to insolvency, conflicts of interest, or professional misconduct

The bidder is not bankrupt and is not subject to proceedings for the determination of bankruptcy, insolvency proceedings, liquidation, composition with creditors, court-supervised administration, or any similar situation.

The bidder has not committed serious professional misconduct.

The bidder is not aware of any conflict of interest arising from participation in this procedure.

The bidder has not previously been subject to revocation of an award in a public auction, nor has it been required to pay damages or other sanctions in connection with a prior public contract.

The bidder has not been seriously guilty of making false statements when providing information required to verify the absence of grounds for exclusion or compliance with selection criteria, nor has it concealed such information.

The bidder has not attempted to improperly influence the decision-making process of the administration, has not provided misleading information, and has not attempted to obtain confidential information that could confer undue advantages.

D: Grounds provided for under Italian law and equivalent grounds under applicable local law

The bidder complies with regulations concerning the employment of persons with disabilities, where applicable.

To the best of the bidder's knowledge, it has not violated obligations relating to occupational health and safety, environmental law, social law, or labor law, where applicable.

[FOR LEGAL ENTITIES, USE OFFICIAL LETTERHEAD]

The bidder is not subject to infiltration by organized crime pursuant to applicable legislation. The bidder has not been subject to disqualification from carrying out business activities or to any other sanction resulting in a prohibition on contracting with the public administration pursuant to applicable law.

The bidder has not violated the prohibition on fiduciary ownership arrangements, where relevant, pursuant to applicable legislation.

Where the bidder has been a victim of the offenses of extortion or coercion committed by organized crime, it has reported the facts to the competent judicial authorities.

PART IV
OTHER REQUIREMENTS SET FORTH IN THE NOTICE

The bidder has full legal capacity and is not subject to interdiction or legal incapacity measures (if an individual), nor to bankruptcy or other collective insolvency proceedings (if a legal entity).

PART V
FINAL DECLARATIONS

Being aware of the criminal penalties provided for in the event of false statements, falsification of documents, or use of false documents, the undersigned declares that the information contained in Part II is true and accurate.

The undersigned declares the absence of the grounds for exclusion listed in Part III and confirms compliance with the requirements set out in Part IV, as well as compliance with all provisions set forth in the Public Auction Notice, under penalty of exclusion from the auction procedure.

The undersigned authorizes the administration referred to in Part I to carry out any checks necessary to verify the truthfulness of the statements made, through the competent authorities.
